Financial Stress in the Workplace – The Facts

Behind every set of figures is a person trying to manage. Financial stress doesn't stay at the front door — it follows people into work, affecting their focus, their confidence, and their output. A large share of employees say financial pressure is their greatest stress, and the majority say it's hurting their performance. Millions more are navigating adverse credit or bracing for higher mortgage costs. The picture that emerges is one employers can no longer afford to overlook.

41% feel that financial pressure is their biggest stress

4.4 employees will face increased mortgage costs in the next 2 months

52% of employees say that money pressure negatively affects their work

BENEFITS

Employee Benefits

☒ 100% Free for All Staff

As part of your employee benefits package, all staff have access to our fully managed mortgage and protection advisory service, completely free of charge, a saving of £499.

We handle everything from initial advice through to application completion, so your staff members never has to navigate the process alone.

☒ Minimal Distribution

Evening appointments are available as standard, meaning employees can get expert advice without stepping away from their desks during working hours. For those who prefer a face-to-face meeting, we can come to your offices, no need for staff to travel or take time out of their day.

☒ A Fully Managed Service

Once an application is submitted, we chase it through to completion on your employee's behalf. Progress updates are delivered directly through our broker portal, so staff stay informed every step of the way without having to chase lenders themselves.

"Joe has helped me massively over the last year or so not just by arranging me the best Mortgage rate we could find but also with advice and tips. Even if I needed to ask a simple question I knew I could text Joe and he'd help me out!"

BENEFITS

Employer Benefits

✓ Free Service

Offering our mortgage and protection service as part of your employee benefits package costs your business nothing, and can actively give something back.

✓ Remove Financial Stress

Remove financial stress before it affects your business. Financial worry is one of the biggest causes of distraction and lost focus in the workplace. When an employee is in the middle of a mortgage application, chasing lenders, waiting on updates, juggling paperwork, that stress doesn't stay at home. It follows them to their desk. By handling the entire process on their behalf, we remove that burden completely, allowing your staff to stay present, focused, and performing at their best.

✓ Employer Rebate Scheme

Earn commission on every completed case. For every employee who completes a mortgage or protection application through our service, your business receives a commission payment. This can be directed straight into your staff welfare fund, used to subsidise other benefits, or reinvested however suits your business best. The more of your team who use the service, the more it generates – at no cost or effort on your part.

✓ Enhanced Benefits

Strengthen your benefits package, and your employer brand. A fully managed, no-cost advisory service with genuine financial value is the kind of tangible benefit that stands out at interview and reinforces loyalty once people are in the role.

✓ Mortgages

✓ Remortgages

✓ Household Insurances

✓ Family Insurances

✓ Trusts & Wills
